Tony DiNuzzo, "Long Road Out of Eden"

Emily Dickinson wrote "Eden is that old-fashioned House we dwell in every day without suspecting our abode until we drive away."

Whereas some may wonder if the Garden of Eden is a mythical place or really exists, maybe it can best be thought of as the search for home. Current state of affairs may turn our own "Eden" into a living hell and tempt us to escape and search for a better place. This service will explore Eden not from just in biblical terms but as an integral part of today's world. How do we manage this long road and what theological lessons are out there to sustain us along the journey?

Tony is a member of the Fellowship.

Greeter: Bets Anderson

Board Member: John Hunger

Music: Steve Hodgson

July 18

Gerry Carr, "Sharing Our Creativity"

Each year we dedicate one service to celebrating our many creative efforts. We often think we are not "creative" unless we sing, dance, paint or write poetry, etc. Expand your definition of creativity to include your own special talents--cooking, gardening, home repair, child-rearing, you name it. Please bring your "show and tell" pieces, or a photo of them, or a story to tell about them.

Greeter: Stan Blazyk

Board Member: Cheryl Henry

Music: UU String Band

INGATHERING TODAY POT LUCK AFTER THE SERVICE

Kathleen DiNatale, "Dancing With Life: Moving from Suffering to Insight"

Cultivating qualities of kindness, compassion, joy and equanimity in the face of life's up's & downs lends us the ability to dance with whatever arises and appreciate the value of each experience. The choice is ours as we access the wisdom and insight to stay the course. Kathleen teaches at Galveston's Yoga Haven, and is a member of UUFGC.

Board Member: Dale Hogan
Music: Margaret Canavan

President's Message

As I take over the office of President of the Board for the coming year, I am very happy to assume leadership of a board and a congregation in remarkably good condition. We have a board of experienced and new members which I am sure will provide the guidance we need in the coming year. Our congregation has a welcoming spirit, an attitude of intellectual curiosity, and a healthy Unitarian Universalist interest in serving our Galveston community. I am grateful to past-president John Hunger for his leadership and his role in keeping our fellowship in good standing.

Given this fortunate state of affairs, I will be mindful of the admonition primum non nocere, or "first, do no harm."

We have a good thing going and we all want that to continue. It does not mean, however, that we cannot make improvements or strive for greater excellence. Our lay-led congregation has had great success in many areas, among them the activities of our program committee, membership committee, social action committee, and our administrative team. The new board will be attentive to all working committees and will be active to build upon our successes and to improve areas which may need a hand. I see our committees as the vehicle carrying our fellowship along the path of our covenant to dwell together in peace, to seek the truth in love, and to help one another.

With your support, your ideas, your enthusiasm, your patience, and your interest in our well-being, I have no doubts that we can accomplish much.

-- Mike Hennen

Love is the spirit of this church, and service is its gift.

This is our great covenant: to dwell together in peace, to seek the truth in love, and to help one another.

Provocative Film Series

Friday, July 2, 7pm

After inheriting a shoe factory, Charlie Price aims to take the fashion world by storm with help from a flashy cabaret dancer named Lola, who helps him design a racy line of men's boots, in this whimsical British comedy. But on the eve of the Milan Shoe Fair -- just as Charlie's about to introduce the world to his signature shoes -- everything falls apart. (The "real" Kinky Boot Factory is W.J. Brookes, which makes the Divine Range of erotic shoes for both men & women.)
